For a patent to be granted, you have to pay a fee for the granting, ref. the Norwegian Patents Act, section 20 and the Regulation Relating to Payments etc. to the Norwegian Industrial Property Office and the Board of Appeal for Industrial Property Rights (Regulation on Fees), section 25. The fee is calculated thusly:

Fee for granting of the patent, for up to 14 pages, including the title page:		Kr	1200
Additional fee for subsequent pages over 14.
Number of pages at kr 250 per page:	5	Kr	1250
Additional fee for chargeable claims over the number for which has already been paid for.
Number of claims at kr 250 per claim:	2	Kr	500
Total		Kr	2950

You will receive a separate invoice for the above amount. The due date is: 2024.01.20. If the invoice is not paid by the due date, the application will be shelved, but with an opportunity for resumption, ref. the Norwegian Patents Act, section 20, first paragraph and Regulation on Fees, section 26.

An exemption of the granting fee can be given on certain terms if the applicant is the inventor, ref. the Norwegian Patents Act, section 20, second paragraph. The request for an exemption must be submitted within two months from the date of this letter.

The applicant can request that the granting of the patent be postponed to the time when the application will be available to the public in according to the Norwegian Patents Act, section 22, second or third paragraphs, ref. Patent Regulations, section 33. The request to postpone the granting of a patent needs to be submitted in writing. The request can only be taken under consideration if it is submitted within two months from the date of this letter and the fee of grant has been paid, ref. the Norwegian Patents Act, section 20. The patent is granted when the granting fee is paid and the patent has been published in the Norwegian Patent Gazette, ref. the Norwegian Patents Act, section 21.

Title

We have the following title in our register:

"Balloon catheter for bulb induction"

If this title is not correct, please let us know before you pay the granting fee.

Please note anyone can submit an opposition against the patent during the nine months following the granting of the patent, ref. the Norwegian Patents Act, section 24, first and second paragraphs.
